

Mobile Library FAQ

Can I book it for parties?

The Mobile Library will not be available to book for parties or private events. The Mobile Library will support the Library's role as a provider of lifelong education in the community.

Where can I find the Mobile Library?

The Mobile Library's monthly schedule can be downloaded by clicking the button above and can be found on the CMLibrary Mobile App.

What communities is the Mobile Library serving?

The Mobile Library ensures that the resources, programs, and services of the Charlotte Mecklenburg Library are accessible to those who face barriers in accessing Library services.

What services will the Mobile Library provide?

The Mobile Library will offer the same programs and services available at our locations: circulation, readers' advisory, technical support, and programs for all ages.

Can I request the Mobile Library to come to my community?

The Library is continually reviewing our Mobile Library visits to different areas of our community to support and ensure library access across the city and county. Please let us know of additional places you would like to have the Mobile Library serve by completing the online form.

What days will the Mobile Library be available?

The Mobile Library will be available Monday through Friday with some evening and weekend hours in hopes to meet the needs of all our community members.

Will I be able to browse materials and check out items on the Mobile Library?

You will be able to browse materials and check out items using your physical or virtual Library card or by using a One Access account.

Are there opportunities for partnership with the Mobile Library?

Reach out to our Mobile Library team at mobilelibrary@cmlibrary.org to learn more about opportunities to collaborate with the Mobile Library or fill out the form here.
